

Blume Cemetery

Located on Private Drive off of Otter Road
Six-tenths a mile east of FM 563, behind Alvin & Lydia Otter's house
Near Anahuac, Texas

John Henry Blume (Jr.)

Died February 7, 1877
Died January 3, 1918

George W. Blume

Born July 25, 1879
Died May 22, 1880

Alfred Blume

Born January 24, 1862
Died October 25, 1884

Josephine Roberts

Born January 14, 1873
Died March or Nov. 16, 1894

2 Blume Infant Boys

Baby Otter Girl

Buried under a huge cedar tree at the rear of the cemetery

Phebie Ann (Ayers) Blume

Wife of John H. Blume
Born July 3, 1835
Died July 7, 1918

John Henry Blume (III)

Born October 11, 1859
Died December 7, 1902

Robert G. Blume

Born March 16, 1867
Died December 26, 1930

Well Estes

Died 1920

One Blume Baby Girl

The names of the people buried in this cemetery were provided to Susan Wilson Potetz, a Blume descendant, by Mrs. Lydia Otter. None of these graves have tombstones.

Susan W. Potetz

Post Office Box 574
Liberty, Texas 77575
936-336-5717

Additional information from an obituary on Robert G. Blume, which appeared in The Progress, January 2, 1931. The obituary states that Robert G. Blume was born in Liberty County but afterward moved to Chambers County, where he had lived the rest of his life. Mr. Blume died from complications arising out of a stroke he suffered on October 13, 1930. He had been married to Miss Annie Wink in June 1895.